GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN IN THE GOLD ROOM—A TALK ON MONEY.

[From the New York World, March 29.]

On Wednesday, George Francis Train, Esq., in a casual visit to the gold room, was called on for a speech upon the finances and upon expansion of the currency, and responded as follows:

ADDRESS OF MR. TRAIN.

In 1860, we had recovered from the financial panic of 1857, and had not commenced the panic of rebellion, and of war. Prosperity all over the land; five million bales of cotton on a thousand plantations; five million tons of shipping on every ocean; agriculture well to do; manufacturers prosperous; banks and insurance companies paying good dividends; railroads succeeding; the petroleum wells just being developed; sixty millions of gold sent us annually from the Pacific mines; the stock market giving a harvest to the brokers—(applause)—the dry goods merchants making money; in short prosperity all over the land, and yet all done on a currency of two hundred and fifty millions. (Applause; "That's so.") Now, then, for another picture: 1867—five million tons of shipping wiped off the sea by England's neutrality; no five millions of cotton in the South; three hundred millions sunk in petroleum; the gold mining companies played out. (Laughter.) I mean that the inventor who confidently put his $10,000 in Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Nevada, has never seen his money. ("That's so.") Where there is plenty of quartz there are no stamps, no mills—and where there are plenty of mills there is no quartz. (Applause and laughter.) Agricultural products are not doing well. The crops have not been flourishing—woolen and other manufactories are suspending payment.—Insurance Companies are failing. Steamship property is dying out. The rottenest security in the street is your so-called gilt-edged paper. The rich men are all poor.—They are first to call their loans. Those patriotic Radicals who put their money into Southern cotton plantations, have planted it there forever. (Laughter.) The West is not paying up promptly. The South have nothing to pay. The bonded warehouses are full of foreign goods not yet paid for. The country is stocked with merchandise. The gold market, as you see it to-day—(loud laughter)—fifty millions sunk in the stock exchange, that financial Morgue of the land—(laughter)—since January, in short, paralysis everywhere—the dry rot in Wall street is the new disease—brokers' market—nobody paying expenses—checks exchanged to show life—all loans on call—no business doing—no industrial enterprises going on—no confidence anywhere, and all this on an expansion of One Thousand Millions—make your own inferences—gentlemen; (sensation)—shall I go on—(cries of yes)—another point. When the old banking companies of England organized under the Limited Liability act they were all or most of them insolvents—as instanced by Overend, Gurney & Co.—Our old banks were in the same position when Mr. Chase, the largest head, the longest head of his party, created the national banking system; to make himself President. (Applause.) You remember he put his handsome photograph on the one dollar notes to circulate among the people.—(Laughter.)

Our national banks, like the English Limited Liability act, were the salvation of most of the rotten banks of the country. [Sensation.] Take their loans this time last year, 1866—five hundred millions. Take them now, 1867—six hundred and twenty millions. Of course, I said, as they have increased their loans, they have added to their capital only twenty-five millions. I found, leaving one hundred millions more now than when expanded last year. What is this loaned on? On Erie at 90, Northwestern at 80, Cumberland coal at 70, Pacific Mail at 180 and Pork at 30.—(Laughter.) The last panic was peculiar—usually we outsiders caught it. This time you insiders got cleaned out. (Applause and "that's so.") Men who had accumulated their two hundred to five hundred thousand dollars in small sums these last few years, buried it all in the Greenwood Cemetery of the Stock Exchange. The Comptroller is abroad; he is after the delinquents; 1,700 of these institutions are in a flurry; already the big loans are called in, and the street will feel the shock within a week.—The recent national bank failures in Washington, Baltimore, Oil Wells, Newton, Hudson, Boston and Nashville, are only the pimples, the slight eruption on the skin, that tells the experienced eye the painful disease that is struggling within. (Applause.) These banks were established on a ten per cent. margin, $100,000 bonds gave $90,000 notes. This margin is lost, and 23 per cent. more, as showed by the loan account, one hundred million more than last year.' (Sensation.)

When the country understands this they will sell governments. Then look abroad. Five hundred millions of our securities in Europe on call—nominally held at 74—or 9 per cent., in gold, while the rottenest security in the old world, 3 per cent. British Consols are selling at 91. That shows how little they think of our bonds. They are simply deposited there and drawn against—a simple kytering operation, which you understand. (Laughter.) When you want to see what is going to happen abroad, look at the never-failing barometer down there in the southeastern part of Europe, the Eastern question. All say peace, yet five millions of breech-loaders, of needle-guns, are being made. When war breaks out, as likely in London or Paris, as in Greece or Turkey, back come the bonds. Send home, not $500,000,000, but $30,000,000, and the dozen international bankers will rush to the government slaughter-house to sell, and the amount will soon be exaggerated to $200,000,000. Suppose they meet there some of the liquidating national bank bonds, and other frightened holders of the bonds, all rushing to sell—who is going to buy? Shall I go on? (Cries of "Yes.") Remember that the loan was taken up on margins. We subscribed $10,000 and borrowed $9,500 and kept the mill going all day, making the man with $10,000 capital talk and act like the millionaire.

The public is a bull on governments only when above par—when below par, they are bears. Let governments drop to par, and down they go to 89. Then national bank notes are 1 per cent. discount. Then comes the rush on national banks for greenbacks. [Sensation.] What is the result? Does Congress help us? No—the lawyers are in power; what do they care? They add $400,000,000 to the debt, and advance their own salaries to $5,000. Is the South to be admitted under the military bill? Stevens holds the reins; confiscation is the order.—The estates are to be cut up among the Germans, and the negroes wiped out. Where are we floating? Congress sees McCulloch has made a mistake, and as it is an administration blunder, the Radicals intend to pass no bill of relief. They will pinch the country this year and bring on a financial crash in the fall—(remember this is the panic year of the never-failing screws)—lay it on the administration policy, and when everything is broken, Congress will meet in the winter and pass Randall's bill, putting greenbacks in the place of the $340,000,000 national bank bonds; pass another bill paying duties on imports in greenbacks, and then another bill paying interest on the 1,400,000,000 five twenties in legal tenders—in other words, give the country one currency. That is twenty-five hundred millions of legal tenders, instead of sixteen currencies as at present. [Applause.] This makes all happy for the Presidential election of 1868. Delirium tremens requires national whisky to recuperate the system. The whisky will make all vote for Radicalism. They elect the President, and after that the deluge. [Laughter and applause.] Johnson, in his talk with Halpine—the Democratic party and the South, thinks that a crash will burst the Radicals. By no means. They will turn it to their advantage.

The next war is to be financial. Land and labor against banks and bondholders—and the former own the notes. The South had no debt; the West little. The greenback age wiped off their mortgages, and placed the load on the back of the bondholders. The debt rests uneasily on the seashore and in Europe, and the shadow is on the wall. Paying gold interest in greenbacks is repudiation, you say. Why so?—Nearly all the States have done it, New York taking the lead. The finality of all the recent Congressional legislation may be stated in two words: Confiscation in the South and repudiation in the North. (Sensation.) The Chicago papers have already sounded the tocsin. We are growing poorer every day. The $2,500,000,000 debt only cost $1,250,000,000. Hence bondholders ask specie payments. The people who did the fighting hold no bonds, and ask for legal tenders. The rich arranged to have their bonds free from taxation. Hence, the rich man, with his millions untaxed by government, sends his children to the same school where the poor man with no bonds sends his. Hence the poor man is obliged to pay for the education of the rich man's children as well as for his own. (Sensation.) But enough of this. You have asked me for a speech and you have got it. You have been dancing five years and the fiddler demands his pay. (Laughter.) When the candle is lighted at both ends, you had better sell it short.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEbrated Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RAUTCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of

LAMPS, BURNERS, CHIMNEYS, WICKS, &c.,

and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 4, 1867.

GEN. SICKLES' ADMINISTRATION.

It would be next to an impossibility for any man, to whom has been committed the difficult task of administering the Reconstruction Act, to do so according to the letter and the intent and meaning of the Congress, expect to meet the views of every man. The deep-seated attachment of the people of North Carolina to the easy and quiet operations of civil law, and their almost universal acquiescence in the decisions of our Judiciary and Courts, has rendered it exceedingly difficult for them to learn, that we have passed through the shock of war, and are still under military rule. We think we may assert with truth, that, pending the late war, no act of violence or departure from our customs, under Confederate military rule, received the sanction or approval of our people, except those, perhaps, who were directly concerned in the execution of military authority. The public sense was often shocked, yet there was acquiescence or quiet disapproval among the masses, alone for the sake of the cause.

In the administration of military law in this District by Gen. Sickles, owing to the latent prejudices of our people in favor of civil law, it may be expected that the same feeling of disapprobation may be felt, when in the exercise of a conscious duty, he may deem it necessary to depart from those rules of ordinary civil action which have prevailed; yet we feel sure the anxieties of our people to maintain quiet and peace, and to sustain his administration, will prompt them to bear, with becoming quiet and fortitude, any seeming departure from our accustomed notions, relying upon his declarations and his known conservatism, in order to gain sooner the ends of peace which they seek and desire.

Gen. Sickles' recent utterances, afford abundant encouragement to hope, that his administration will be eminently conservative. His strong assurances of the deep interest he feels in the domestic quiet and material prosperity of North and South Carolina, his kindly and wholesome advice to our colored population, and his determination to enforce the Reconstruction Acts, free from all partiality or prejudice, warrant the belief and hope that his administration will be eminently successful in restoring quiet and prosperity, and breaking down those unnecessary prejudices and animosities which have grown up among ourselves, originating in a great measure, no doubt, from misrepresentation and partizan feeling.

We confess that we have been more than gratified at the sound views expressed by Gen. Sickles, in his recent brief addresses to both white and colored at Charleston. They fully justify the sentiment we expressed immediately on his appointment, that his experience and acquaintance in the District rendered his re-appointment fit and proper.

CONNECTICUT.

The result in this State is even more favorable than was at first announced. The whole Conservative State ticket is elected, and three out of the four Congressmen are Conservatives. In the late Congress, the entire delegation was Radical. The new Legislature will stand, according to the New York World, 12 Democratic Senators to 9 Republican; and in the lower House the Democrats claim a small majority. The last Legislature was overwhelmingly Radical.

Here is what the National Intelligencer says of the result:

"Glorious news greets us from the North. 'The land of steady habits' nobly meets the expectations of the friends of constitutional government. The tide of Radicalism is turned, and the freemen of Connecticut have proudly proclaimed that the Constitution is still in force; that the rights of the States shall not be trampled upon; that the government shall not be consolidated in the hands of a Congressional directory. The sceptre of power is wrested from the hands of men who, under the pretence of putting down rebellion, have inaugurated a revolution which, striking down the safeguards of personal liberty, would destroy the independence of the Executive, the sacred functions of the Supreme Court, and the precious guarantees of constitutional government.—The intelligent citizens of Connecticut rebuke a Congress which insults liberty by rearing a military despotism in the midst of a free republic."

And here is what the World says:

"This good beginning will presently be followed by other proofs of a reaction. In about three weeks, we shall have an opportunity to test anew the comparative strength of parties in the State of NEW-YORK. The vote for the delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention will show whether the Republican party has gained or lost since last fall's election, and we are confident, from the signs of the times, that the reaction will be found more powerful here than it has been in CONNECTICUT. The passions of the last six years are rapidly dying out by the exhaustion of their fuel and the near prospect of a final settlement in the South. The Republican party, whether for good or for evil, has accomplished its mission. It must die with the issues which gave it birth and have kept it in power. The nineteen months which intervene between now and the Presidential election will witness the decline and fall of a party which has done more mischief, shed more blood, squandered more treasure, kindled more diabolical passions, and inflicted deeper wounds on constitutional government, than any other political party that ever existed in the world."

GEN. SCHOFIELD, commanding "District No. 1," has ordered the suspension of all elections, whether State, county, or municipal, until the registration provided for by the act of Congress, March 2d, 1867, shall be completed. Vacancies which may occur, meanwhile, will be filled by temporary appointments, to be made by the commanding General.

"MORE KICKS THAN COPPERS."

It must be of all things the most mortifying to go down upon the knees of humiliation, and to crawl in the dust of subserviency, to propitiate favor—and after all to be only ridiculed for your pains and your prostration. The rebuff must be trebly mortifying when the supplicant, in his abasement, has been compelled to swallow all his former opinions and recant all his former principles.

Every body here at home, in North Carolina, who has not been either "frightened from his propriety" by the indications of the times, or who is not instinctively inclined to such affiliations, perfectly well understands the motives and the objects of the majority of the white men who were assembled in the late Holdenite muddle in this City. It was most natural, under all the novelties of the situation, that a large portion of the colored people, within its reach, should have been temporarily deluded by their high-sounding professions and fascinated by their flashily heralded devices of "Liberty and Equality;" but the correction of all this will come with a little reflection and experience. There were a few whites in the Convention, who participated in an honest belief that they were promoting the work of reconstruction, or from a desire to give the most harmless and liberal cast possible to the deliberations of the body. But, with these exceptions, we say, our people generally properly rated the men and their measures. They knew that the Convention was composed of broken-down party hacks and selfish and disappointed politicians, who, believing all their known antecedents, and impudently braving their life-long professions and practices, sought to pander to the extreme sentiment of Congress and the North, and to use the colored race as a means of regaining office and satiating their vindictiveness against the large majority of their fellow-citizens.

We must confess that we did expect, however, that the Northern press and public would be in a measure deceived by this demonstration, and, in their ignorance of the antecedents and animus of the men making it, would fail to appreciate their hypocrisy. It would seem, however, that we are mistaken, and that even those, for whom these men played upon their "harp of a thousand strings," pronounce it bad music, and have awarded the performers but Piper's pay—"more kicks than coppers." The New York Herald flouts them, and we find the following in the New York Times, which, our readers need not be informed, is edited by Mr. Raymond, who voted, in Congress, for the Howard amendment and the Reconstruction Acts:

"Information has been received here from North Carolina that the recent so-called Union meeting held at Raleigh was sold out to the rebels. Of the ten white men selected as Committee on Resolutions, nine could not take the oath required by law.—It was not a Delegate Convention, and only fifty-three of the eighty-nine counties in the State were represented. The members were selected by Governor Holden, and a few of his friends, without regard to political qualifications, other than that they were willing to endorse the policy of the Holdenites. A Convention of the unconditional white and black Unionists will soon be called, and there will be two tickets for delegates to the Constitutional Convention to be organized under the Reconstruction Bill, one of the Holdenites and the other of the Unionists."

We do not know what ground there may be for the statement made in the foregoing. So far as the Conservative men of the State,—by which we mean all those who are actuated by an honest desire for restoration on the terms laid down, whatever may have been their former opinions,—are concerned, we are not aware that they entertain any wish or purpose to call a Convention. They desire to do nothing looking to agitation and excitement. It may be, however, that the real, bona fide, all-the-time Unionists in the State, in their unwillingness to follow the lead of such newly-fledged zealots as composed the late concern, meditate such a movement as the one referred to.

B. F. MOORE, ESQ.—We are pleased to observe several very complimentary notices of our fellow citizen, B. F. Moore, Esq., in our exchanges. Some speak of him for our next Governor, others for United States Senator, both of which positions he would fill well. He was our first choice for Provisional Governor, in 1865, on account of his consistency as a Union man, and his known conservatism, and especially because he had for years abandoned the field of politics, and had "no friends to reward nor enemies to punish."

We do not precisely understand whether or not Mr. Moore is disfranchised by the Reconstruction Act. Many consistent Union men are barred for slight causes, by the various constructions put upon the disfranchising clause of that Act. We have frequently heard it remarked that Mr. Moore would not take the Congressional test-oath. Whether this is so or not we cannot say. If, however, Mr. Moore is not disfranchised by the Reconstruction Act, we should be glad to see him a candidate for the State Convention from Wake County. We would support him most heartily.

THE Standard of this morning has not heard from the Connecticut elections!

"THE SOUTHERN OPINION."—The Prize Poems.—H. Rives Pollard, Esq., Editor of The Southern Opinion, announces the following committees to award the prizes for the best poems as indicated. The MSS. have been handed in for examination and decision:

Poem on the Confederate Dead.—It was thought most appropriate that the award of this poem should be made by the Hollywood Memorial Association, who have kindly consented to act.

Poem in Laudation of the Deeds, Valor, Sufferings, and Sacrifices of the Confederate Soldiers.—General Bradley T. Johnson, General John D. Imboden, Colonel Marmaduke Johnson, Major Isaac H. Carrington, Major John Johns.

Poem on the Great Prisoner of Fortress Monroe, Jefferson Davis.—P. H. Aylett, Esq., Hon. Robert Ould, Rev. J. Lansing Burrows, Judge W. W. Crump, Professor Charles H. Winston.

The awards will be publicly announced as soon as decided by the committees.

For the Sentinel.

TO THE WOMEN OF THE SOUTH

We would address a word of exhortation and advice:

The unfortunate condition which surrounds us, the languishing state of all kinds of business, the great destitution prevailing in our midst, and the gloomy prospect looming up before us, lead to the enquiry, "What can we do to benefit our unhappy country?" Let not the difficulties which environ us paralyze our efforts. We must not permit the depression of gloom to overshadow us. Let us arouse ourselves to efforts, which, in times past, sustained the hands and cheered the hearts of our struggling countrymen.

One great want in our country is the lack of employment to a vast number of females, rendered destitute by the results of the war. Many are seeking in vain for some kind of occupation by which they could earn a subsistence. Cannot the women of North Carolina form themselves into societies to devise ways and means to furnish employment to those who are so earnestly seeking it? Let us resolve that we will not wear any article made by any other fingers than those of our own women. What matters it if we should not be imitators of the fashionable world? The fire of patriotism would sparkle in the eye, lending far more charms than the ephemeral fashions of the day.

In days gone by, when clad in homespun, did we not appear as charming to the other sex as we do now clad in silks? If now we could be induced to try the experiment, we verily believe we would be more successful in winning hearts; for now all ideas of love are stifled, and matrimony put afar off, in the fear of not being able to keep up the styles which our young ladies now appear in.

Another thing we can do is to encourage our brothers and friends to patronize home enterprizes. Smile more kindly on those who are clad in domestic manufacture made up at home. Let it be the business of each person to scrutinize this matter. Let it be the rule in each society that we will wear nothing from abroad that can be produced at home.

Should the enquiry come up, what is there we can engage in, in order to keep at home and in circulation the little money that is left us, we can ply, again the knitting needle. It will employ many hands to make our stockings; they can be beautifully and cheaply made, in this way saving much time spent now in mending the interior article which is furnished us. There are many amongst us skilled in embroidery,—let us find them out, and employ them to do this work for us. And a shame is it that we give our money to the stranger for making the shirts our men wear, while our own poor are begging bread! Can not some enterprising ladies of each town superintend this branch of business, to see that it is properly done; and will not our merchants patronize them? If so, we call upon patriots of the South to furnish employment suited to our sex. Give us something to do, is our cry to you. You have no money to bestow, for your wealth is gone; but encourage the labor of our hands. Should the policy of buying at home and keeping our money here, be adopted, what, it may be asked, will become of our merchants, now so numerous? We answer, let them engage in other pursuits.—The source of their success has been based upon our agriculture. In the change of our system of labor the profits arising from it are greatly diminished, which re-acts injuriously upon the merchant. Let men of small capital engage in supplying our market with some of the necessities for which we are now dependent upon those who have deprived us of our liberty, wealth and happiness. Cannot some of our enterprising men furnish us with brooms, pickles, preserves, soap, vinegar, blacking, starch, &c., &c? These are mentioned because it would not require much capital to manufacture them. The exigency has again arisen requiring a display of energy, which, during the war, surprised ourselves and the world. Now, what is there to deter any one from engaging in such pursuits? It is the fear lest they will not meet with patronage.

Now I propose to the women of North Carolina, to do all in our power to remove this impression, and we can do much for our country in this respect. Let us at once give a decided preference to home manufactures, and by so doing, we will be giving an earnest to future undertakings. We must diversify our pursuits, or be slaves forever.

L.

DIRECT TAX IN THE SOUTHERN STATES.

The following table exhibits the amount of direct tax collected in the Southern States, together with the apportionment to each State under the act of June 7, 1862.—The statement of the amount collected also includes the sum realized from the sales of property for the non-payment of taxes:

	Apportionment.	Collected.
Virginia	$937,500.00	$468,674.51
North Carolina	576,194.06	402,958.62
South Carolina	363,870.66	222,690.97
Georgia	584,367.33	82,621.84
Mississippi	413,084.66	69,947.95
Louisiana	393,986.66	210,863.78
Tennessee	669,408.00	402,843.41
Total	$ 3,930,152.39	$ 1,960,591.91

The amounts collected in Florida, Texas and Arkansas have not been finally reported to the Commissioner of internal Revenue; but, from reports already rendered, it appears that a large portion of the tax due from those States is still unpaid. No collections whatever have been made in Alabama. No collections have been made since the 3rd of August, 1866, at which date the Secretary of the Treasury ordered a suspension until January 1, 1868, under special authority from Congress.

NO HUMBUG.—Mr. N. M. Wilson sold, several days ago, a box of fine fancy wrappers, made by Jno. W. Graves, Esq., of Caswell county, for $150—bought by C. J. Baldwin & Co., manufacturers, for their celebrated brand, "Premium Bright Pounds." This is the highest price, we are informed, yet paid in the city of Richmond.

Caswell is one of about six or seven counties round Danville, which produces the finest tobacco in the world, for wrappers. Nor are we surprised, that the above extraordinary price was obtained by our friend N. M. Wilson, whose unceasing activity, and promptness in all his transactions, skill and judgment, make him a first rate commission merchant. The farmer who puts his tobacco in his hands, is sure to get its full value.—Danville (Va.) Times.

NASHVILLE, April 1.—The Conservative Convention was held here to-day, Judge Grant presiding. Judge Grant and Mr. Williams, a colored man, were the principal speakers, the former reiterating his views in favor of accepting the situation, recognizing the negro as a citizen and voter, and inviting him to participate in political meetings; Williams also taking the ground that the owners of the soil and laborers were identified in interest, and should co-operate for the good of each other and the country. He believed the Southern man the negro's best friend.

Williams is from Pennsylvania, and has served in the Federal army.

The Convention adopted a resolution requesting the colored voters to hold a meeting and appoint delegates to the State Convention, which assembles here on the 15th, to nominate a candidate for Governor.

NOTICE.

OFFICE SEABOARD & ROANOKE R. R. CO.,
PORTSMOUTH, VA., March 22d, 1867.

IT has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained, and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. If this is complied with, and the Manager of the Seaboard Road receives the letter, he gives assurance that it shall be promptly investigated and replied to.

This Air-Line Freight Route

claims to be the most expeditious and direct route, and avoiding to a great extent Marine Insurance, also the cheapest freight route between the

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GRAND CHARITABLE

PRESENTATION CONCERT,

IN AID OF THE Southern Orphan Association.

Incorporated by the Legislature of Virginia, January 30, 1867.

TO BE GIVEN AT THE

MARYLAND INSTITUTE,

BALTIMORE,

APRIL 30th, 1867

THE PROFITS OF THIS CONCERT WILL BE GIVEN TO THE SOUTHERN ORPHANS' ASSOCIATION, TO THE SUBJOINED ADDRESS, FROM THE OFFICERS OF WHICH, WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC:

"We, the Officers of the Southern Orphans' Association, for the maintenance and education of the destitute orphans of deceased Southern soldiers and sailors, earnestly solicit the sympathy and co-operation in our

Grand Presentation Concert,

Of all who desire to see the

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

enabled to receive and care for all the needy ones who seek its shelter and protection.

Thanking our friends for their past contributions and assistance, we again appeal to them to help us in a more extensive enterprise. It is the design of this Association to erect a for the orphans of the South, both male and female, on an extensive scale, in the city of Richmond, Virginia. As an inducement to have the building located there, the Common Council of that city have guaranteed a sufficient lot of land, in an elevated and healthful location, and will increase the quantity of land if needed.

It is with a confident hope in a favorable response to this appeal to a public which has never yet failed to sustain a charitable institution, that we have entered into an arrangement with Messrs. L. T. PALMER & Co., No. 13 Holliday street, Baltimore, to organize a Grand Musical Presentation Concert for its benefit, and earnestly solicit the kindly aid and patronage of the public to ensure its success.

(Signed)
Mrs. J. L. HAMMOND, President.
Mrs. Dr. J. B. BEAN, Vice President.
Mrs. E. A. F. MEARS, Treasurer.
Mrs. Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Cor. Secretary.
Mr. J. H. SCHIERS, Recording Secretary.
Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Financial Secretary.
H. C. DALLAM, Esq., Counsellor.
BALTIMORE, Feb. —, 1867.

TRUSTEES.

Mrs. E. A. F. MEARS, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. J. H. SCHIERS, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. W. S. BOSTOCK, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. A. HAWKINS, Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. CHAS. McCURDIN, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. Hon. JAS. LYONS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. JAS. THOMAS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. THOS. BRANCH, Richmond, Va.

It may seem unnecessary to add a single word to the above address, but calls upon the Institution have been so numerous and pressing, and the struggle through which it is now passing to widen the circle of its charities is of such an arduous nature, that the management cannot too strongly urge upon the

HUMANE AND PATHETIC

everywhere, an active participation in this additional attempt to alleviate the sad condition of great numbers of helpless children, rendered thus by the terrible war through which we have passed. And, assuredly, whatever may have been the relative political views of ladies and gentlemen heretofore, all must agree that the children referred to, could not, by any possibility, have had any agency in bringing about their present

DEPLORABLE AND DESTITUTE CONDITION, and are suitable objects for the charity of all persons of whatever shade of political opinion. The

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

which they now more particularly seek to establish and endow, will be of incalculable benefit by providing not only food and raiment for these helpless ones, but likewise solid and thorough education, thus qualifying them for Future Usefulness to Society at Large.

In order that this appeal may be effectual in enlisting the active interest and co-operation of all classes of persons everywhere, we have concluded to issue for the Grand Presentation Musical Concert,

500,000 tickets at the nominal price of $1 each—a single ticket entitling the purchaser to a gift—there being one gift to every ticket. The gifts are as follows:

FERTILIZERS

FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by

Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.50
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

THE SENTINEL.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 4, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See notice of Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co.'s Great Trade Sale, to which we alluded on yesterday.

We call attention to the announcement of the General Superintendent of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Co.

See the Card of the American Hotel, Norfolk, Va., an excellent establishment kept on the European plan.

The sale of shares, in the Lockville Mining Co., by the Assignees of J. F. Foard, which was advertised to take place on the 15th. ult., has been postponed until the 5th. of May.

Isaac Oettinger announces a fine importation of the latest and most attractive Spring and Summer goods. Mrs. Oettinger carries on, in connection with the establishment, the Millinery business in all its departments.

Read Messrs. Taylor & Young's (186 Front St., New York,) advertisement of their invaluable Yeast Powders. Messrs. Pulliam, Jones, & Co., are the agents for this city.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—The case of the State vs. John White, (colored) on an indictment for Burglary and Larceny, was tried on yesterday. The Attorney General represented the State, and Messrs. Robert G. Lewis, R. W. York and R. C. Badger appeared for the prisoner. We understand that the case was ably argued on both sides. The prisoner was charged with breaking into the house of O. D. Lipscomb, at night, and stealing a gold watch and a silver cup. He was found not guilty of Burglary, which is a capital offence, but guilty of the Larceny.

HOLLYWOOD BAZAAR.—The ladies of this City, with their usual patriotic public spirit, are engaged in making up a handsome box of valuable and appropriate articles as a donation to the Hollywood Bazaar. We are requested to state that the box will be kept open until Saturday, and that any contributions for the same may be sent to the Lady President of the Memorial Sewing Society.

MEMORIAL CEMETERY.—The bodies of the following named Confederate soldiers were brought up yesterday from Wake Forest College for re interment in the Memorial Cemetery at this place, viz:

George Frazier, N. C; W. Bachelor, Co. "E," 2nd N. C. Cav., died March 22, 1865; Wm. Wall, Co. "H," 1st N. C. Res., died March 30th, 1865; A. McDonald, Co. "A," 8th N. C., died Feb. 10th, 1865; Wm. Bursett, Co. "K," 2nd N. C. Res., died March 31st, 1865; J. R. M'Callow, Co. "H," 27th Ga; P. T. Seely, Co. "C," 27th Ga., died April 6th, 1865; and W. J. Livingstone, S. C. Vol., died April 11th, 1865.

If there are any scattering ones in the County not yet removed, the ladies of the Memorial Association desire that some person living in the neighborhood will bring them in for interment, preserving the name, Regiment and State. There is said to be one body near Page's Saw Mill in this county, and another one about eight miles southeast of Raleigh, on the Holleman road.—Will not some neighbor bring them in as soon as possible?

ORANGES.—The very finest of the season, large, luscious and sweet, may be had of W. Robert Andrews, Family Grocer, Fayetteville Street.

N. C. BOOK STORE.—We learn that the North Carolina Publishing Company have bought out the entire establishment of Messrs. Branson & Farrar, and will continue to carry on the business at the old and well-known stand. They propose, we also understand, to increase the stock and facilities of the House

MORE ROBBERIES IN HILLSBORO'.—The Recorder says that, on Friday night last, the premises of Mrs. Col. Jones were entered by burglars, and three silver cake baskets, a silver cup, all her table linen, a quantity of sugar, and a handsome backgammon board belonging to her son, the late Capt. Robin Jones, were stolen. And on Monday night, the smoke house of Dr. Edmund Strudwick was broken open, and all his meat stolen.

CAPTURE OF A WHALE.—On Saturday last a whale, some forty feet long, was captured off Beaufort harbor and safely towed into port. It is said that forty barrels of oil will be the result. So says Capt. High of the A. & N. C. R. R., in the Journal of Commerce.

THE LAND WE LOVE.—The April number is before us, fresh and sparkling as ever, a fit companion for these bright vernal days. If we could command such a result, we would put this magazine in the hands of every family in the country, in the assurance that they would be benefitted by its manly thought, honest sentiment and elevated moral and literary cast. The number before us concludes the second volume, and we will endeavor to notice its contents more fully in a few days. We earnestly hope that, with the opening of the third volume, its already flattering prospects may be greatly enhanced.

In the "Haversack" for the present month, we find the following eloquent passing tribute from the pen of Gen. Hill to the late Gen. George B. Anderson, which we take pleasure in giving a place in our columns:

"The great English poet has truly and beautifully said,

The bravest are the tenderest,
The loving are the daring.

In a private conversation, one of the most enthusiastically gallant soldiers of the Confederacy said to us, "my wife and children are stereotyped upon my brain; they seem ever before me." In a few days, this brave, me lest, conscientious Christian fell, in the full prime of vigorous manhood The South had no nobler martyr than Gen'l. G. B. Anderson, of North Carolina; no, not one. We met no one with whom we formed a warmer friendship, and few for whom we had a more sincere esteem. May his name be one of honor with our children's children!"

This is beautiful and just. We never knew a nobler type of the Christion gentle man than George Burgwyn Anderson,—peace to his noble ashes!

COL. J. D. STUBBS.—We briefly alluded, on yesterday, to the transfer of Col. Stubbs, Chief Quartermaster, from this post to Head Quarters at Charleston. We regret this change, and would be gratified if, in the judgment of the Commanding General, it would be consistent with the public interests for Col. Stubbs to remain in Raleigh.—The superior healthiness of our City to that of Charleston is one argument in favor of the continuance of the Quartermaster's Department here, whose employees are required to do a heavy amount of labor, where the climate and surroundings are favorable to that species of labor.

We formed the acquaintance of Col. Stubbs early after the arrival of Gen. Sherman's army here. He is one of the few men, then connected with the Quartermaster's Department, whose services have been retained to the present time. Our acquaintance with him pertains entirely to his business and social character, and we can truly say we have found none more prompt, constant and obliging, confining himself strictly to business and the line of duty.—His relations to all our people, who have formed his acquaintance, have been entirely kind and agreeable, and all of them part with him with regret. As to politics, the Colonel seems to have none—a most capital rule, we think, for an officer of the army—except what may be found in the Army Regulations, the routine of the business of his office and in the courtesies of life. We doubt if the army has a superior officer in this department.

APRIL FOOL.—On the morning of the 1st. the Charlotte Guardian contained a grave announcement that, at 12 o'clock, Monsieur Looflirpana would make an aerial ascent in front of Mike Lipman's Circus. A number of persons assembled to witness the expected performance, which did'nt come off.—The next morning, the Guardian requested those who attended to spell Looflirpana backwards!

AFRICAN METHODIST CONFERENCE.—This body, comprising the African Methodist Episcopal Church in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, is in session at Wilmington. The Conference opened its session on Saturday last at 9 o'clock.—Bishop Payne, who was to preside, not having arrived, Rev. R. H. Cain was elected President until his arrival. Rev. G. W. Brodie of this city and Rev. T. G. Stewart were elected Secretaries. The roll being called one hundred and twenty ministers, members and applicants were present.

The standing committees having been appointed, the Conference adjourned to Monday morning.

The Conference met on Monday, Bishop A. W. Wyman in the chair. The usual examination of character was taken up and all the members passed approved. Fifty-one applicants for admission into the itinerancy appeared, whose cases were referred to a committee for consideration.

The bulk of the members and preachers of this Church were formerly members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

DEPOT CHANGES.—We learn that a measure is on foot to establish a village on an eligible site, a mile and a half below Mitchener's Depot, on the N. C. R. R., in Johnson County, to be called "Selma." The Directors of the N. C. Road are favorable, we learn, to removing the Depot to that point. The people residing convenient to Wilson's Mill, this side of Tar river, are also anxious to have a Depot at that point.—But for the severe losses which would fall upon the people of Smithfield, and the expense to the County in removing the Court House and jail, instead of creating a new village on the Railroad, it would be far better to remove "Smithfield" to that point.—The unhealthiness of its present location is a most serious drawback to the enterprise and business of the place.

THE "VANCE" Base-Ball Club has been organized in Goldsboro. A good name!

THE SOUTH AND RECONSTRUCTION.—It would seem, says the New York Herald, that the district commanders find but little disposition on the part of those subjected to the operation of the reconstruction act to render the execution of the law either difficult or disagreeable; but from all indications, an earnest desire is manifested to reach the end of their tribulations, and once more be found working in harmony with the other States of the Union.

The Conservative party of Tennessee will hold a State Convention at Nashville on the 16th of April.

Cotton closes dull. Middling uplands 12@12¼. Orleans 13¼.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON,

WASHINGTON, April 4.

The Cameron-Stevens feud is deepening. Cameron favors the confirmation of Democrats, in preference to Stevens' friends. Stevens is represented to be furious.

It is probable that the Russian treaty will be postponed till next session.

The President's participation in the efforts to bring the reconstruction matter before the Supreme Court, with a view to enjoining the District Commanders, is authoritatively denied. The whole story is regarded as speculative.

English's majority is 979.

It is stated that the Attorney General has advised the President that Sheridan exceeded his powers in removing the Louisiana Provisional officers. The Radicals claim that the first and sixth sections confer unquestionable power.

General Sheridan writes that a faithful enforcement of the law will necessitate further removals.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

COLUMBUS, April 4.

The Senate has passed the House manhood suffrage bill, with an amendment, disfranchising "rebels" and deserters.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, April 4.

Cotton dull and lower; 28½ for middling uplands.

Gold $1,33¾.

LIVERPOOL, April 4, 2 P. M.

Since noon, cotton has declined ⅛d. Middling uplands 12¼.

DOWN UPON IT.—The Charlottesville Chronicle is down upon Forepaugh's circus like a thousand of brick. The editor says that "a women, with some feathers in her head and a sash around her waist, rode miserably—and we really felt sorry she could ride no faster, because she was in great danger of catching cold, as she wore nothing but the articles we have mentioned!"

Forney publishes the population of the Southern States, and argues from the figures "that Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia will become 'Radical' States in due course of time, and most of them before the next Presidential election." The ground of this calculation is, that "there will be a unity of the colored race against their old masters," and that there will also be a "certain division among the Southern whites." His reliance as the nucleus of a new party are Holden in North Carolina, Hamilton in Texas, and some nameless person "within sight of the capitol" in Virginia. This opposition of the colored race to the whites is precisely what Gen. Sickles advises both to avoid, and what both will have sense enough to avoid. The division among the whites, on which Forney reckons, is hardly as much as health requires, while the whites in every State were even in 1860 a considerable, and in most a large majority, except in South Carolina and Mississippi.—Richmond Enquirer.

FOR THE SOUTHERN POOR.—Ladies attached to the various churches of Washington met in large numbers at Dr. Gurley's church, to-day, for the purpose of considering the propriety of holding a fair or festival to obtain funds for the relief of the suffering poor of the South. A committee was appointed to arrange for the holding of a grand fair about the middle of May.—Another committee was appointed, with Professors Daniels and Parks, to get up weekly concerts for the same object.

At the Western Presbyterian church, Rev. J. N. Coombs pastor, over $200 was collected for the same object yesterday. The subscriptions to this fund are represented to be coming in freely and in liberal amounts.—Letter in Sun.

STOLEN—ONE DARK BAY MARE, ABOUT eleven years old, scar over the right eye, back scarred by saddle. One JERSEY WAGON, painted black, light blue shafts. The mare and wagon were last seen in Goldsboro', about the 18th of February. N. B. YERGER,

AUCTION SALES.

St. JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD N. C.

FOR SALE ON CREDIT.

THE UNDERSIGNED, IN BEHALF OF THE trustees of the above institution, and all other parties interested, respectfully announce, that on,

TUESDAY, THE 7TH. MAY, 1867, they will sell to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Oxford, the property known as

"ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD,"

together with the MANSION HOUSE adjoining it, and about

ONE HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND,

all of which is suitable for farming or other purposes.

A better investment was never presented in North Carolina, to the capitalist.

It offers peculiar inducements to any well qualified lady or gentleman disposed to engage in the business of teaching a one of which in charge of Mr. J. R. Mills is already in successful operation upon the premises.

First Class Female School

The Main or College building, situated in the middle of a large grove of white oak trees, twenty acres in extent, upon a commanding eminence near the town, is built of excellent brick; arranged with reference to all the modern improvements and conveniences. It is four stories high; 126 feet long and 66 feet through the centre; it contains the usual number of halls and rooms for a full corps of professors, and students; 53 chambers in the dormitory an elegant and tasteful aped 125 feet high and a splendid CHAPEL. This building was erected in 1856, by the Masonic fraternity of N. C. for educational purposes, and has been recently put in thorough and complete repair.

The Mansion House in the rear contains six large and airy rooms; a large porch with heavy pillars; piazzas and basements all in fine order with every necessary outbuilding complete and a fine garden and grounds.

The Land and Mansion will be sold with the College!

TERMS.—Cash sufficient to cover the costs of advertising and sale; bond, with approved security, payable at 6 and 12 months for the residue. Title reserved till payment.

DRY GOODS.

A CARD.

BEAR IN MIND THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

1st. Our House is the oldest Dry Goods establishment in the city,—our Junior member having been in the business nearly 20 years.

2nd. We keep one of our firm constantly in the Northern markets.

3rd. He is well posted as to quality and price of goods.

4th. We buy for cash: and buy goods lower by doing so.

5th. We know the wants of our customers and our goods please them.

6th. Our motto is "quick sales and small profits."

7th. We do a live business—don't keep any dead stock on hand.

8th. It is a notorious fact that we buy the best quality of goods: and sell them at low prices.

9th. We attend strictly to our business.

10th. We sell goods for cash.

11th. If we make anything, it is spent in the improvement of our city.

12th. We dont keep any groceries.

Are not the above 12 good reasons why you should buy your Dry Goods of us?

We had hoped to have carried our beautiful Spring stock to our new Store, but owing to the bad weather, have been delayed. We will sell it out at our old stand.

We can truthfully say that a handsomer stock of

SPRING AND SUMMER DRY GOODS

has never been offered in this market.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First-class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages to every respect.

THE SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1867.

THE OLD-FASHIONED CHOIR.

I h ve fancied, sometimes, the Bet'lehem beam
That transfixed to earth in the patriarch's dream
Was a ladder of song in the wilderness rank,
From the pillow of stone to the hem of the Host,
And the angels descending to dwell with us here
"Old Hundred," and "Corinth," and "China," and "Mear."

All the hearts are not dead, not under the sod,
That those breaths can blow open to Heaven and God!
Ah, "Silver Street" leads by a bright, golden road—
O, it is not the hymns that in harmony flowed—
But those sweet human psalms in the old-fashioned choir,
To the girls that sang alto—to the girls that sang air!

"Let us sing in His praise," the minister said;
All the psalm-books at once fluttered open at "York;"
Sunned their dotted wings in the words that he read,
While the leader leaped into the tune just ahead,
And I politely picked out the key-note with a fork,
And the vicious old vird went growling along
At the heels of the girls in the rear of the song.

I need not a wing—bid no genii come,
With a wonderful web from Arabian loom,
When the world was in rhythm and life was its rhyme;
Where the streams of the years flowed up noiseless and narrow,
That across it there floated the song of a sparrow;
For a sprig of green caraway carries me there,
To the old village church and the old village choir,

When clear of the floor my feet slowly swung,
And timed the sweet praise of the song as they sung,
'Till the glory aslant from the afternoon sun
Sounded the rafters of gold in God's temple begun!
You may smile at the nasals of old Deacon Brown,
Who followed by scent till he ran the tune down—
And the dear sister Green, with more goodness than grace,

Rose and fell on the tunes as she stood in her place;
And where "Coronation" exultingly flows,
Tried to reach the high notes on the tips of her toes!
To the land of the leal they went with their song,
Where the choir and the chorus together belong.
O, be lifted, ye Gates! Let me hear them again—
Blessed song, blessed Sabbath, forever, amen!

Few theological definitions could bear the palm from that of the priest who, having preached a sermon on miracles, was asked by one of his congregation, walking homeward, to explain a little more lucidly what a miracle meant.

"Is it a mericle you want to understand," said the priest. "Walk on there formost me, and I'll think how I can explain it to you."

The man walked on, and the priest came behind him and gave him a tremendous kick.

"Ugh!" roared the sufferer; "why did you do that?"

"Did you feel it?" said the priest.

"To be sure I did," replied the unhappy disciple.

"Well, then, remember this. It would have been a mericle if you had not."

Begging has been reduced to a science in Columbus. The latest application was from a little girl on a street corner, who very earnestly pleaded for a "chaw er terbaccer for her sick and dying mother."

In the gardens of a certain nobleman's country house there happened to be fixed up at different spots painted boards with this request, "Please not to pick the flowers without leave!" Some wag got a paintbrush and added s to the last word.

Excited Frenchman at Niagara Falls.—"Eh! dis is ze grand spectakle: Supabb! Magnifique! By gar, he is come down first rate."

A person asked an Irishman why he wore his stockings wrong side outward. "Because," said he, "there's a hole on the other side."

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabar, or bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 24, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil governments which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th. section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God." which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits. Pamphlets containing well-know Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

VALUABLE LANDS AND MILLS FOR SALE.

NOT being able to attend to my Mills and Farms on Little River, I now offer them for sale. They are located 3 miles above Lowell Cotton Factory and 5 miles from the N. C. R. Road in Johnston County. The said tract contains about well timbered land, containing enough open land for a 3 or 4 horse Farm, with a comfortable dwelling and all necessary out houses requisite to a farm.

800 ACRES

The soil is well adapted to the growth of Cotton and Corn, with ample facility for improvement.

Also, connected with said farm a GRIST MILL, with two pair of stones, and a SAW MILL, all in running order, with water power enough to drive a Cotton Factory!

Also, one other tract, lying on Buffalo Swamp, containing about 500 acres cleared land, enough for a 5 or 6 horse Farm, with low grounds drained by a twenty feet canal with all other ditches necessary. Will make, if well cultivated, 400 or 500 barrels of corn. The upland is well adapted to the growth of Cotton and Corn, with every facility for improvement.

SMITH'S, 25 SYCAMORE STREET,

PETERSBURG, VA.

QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS BEING now more than ever my firm conviction of the true way to success, I am determined to pursue this course, and as advertising is only effectual when it is real, I am also determined to advertise only such goods as are really on hand and in stock. Independent of the large stock of

DRY GOODS,

I have added a large stock of Cocoa and Straw Matting, Oil Cloths, Carpets, Lace and Damask Curtains, Table and Piano Covers, Lace Tidies, Bleached and Unbleached Satin-Damask and Snow-drop Table Linen, Napkins, Doilies Towels, Huckaback Linen Dowlas, Diaper and Birdseye Diapers in great variety. All kinds of white goods—such as Dressed and Undressed Jackonets and Cambric, Checked Muslins, Nainsooks—plain and checked, Mull-Muslins, Swisses, plain, checked, dotted and embroidered, Organdies and Grenadines, Book Muslins, Tarletons—white and colored.

Also, a full assortment of LACES AND EMBROIDERIES, from the finest real Point Lace Collar, worth $25, to the lowest Imitation lace, worth 25 cents. A full assortment of Bands, Edging and Flouncings—Cambric, Jackonet, Nainsook and Linen.

Also, the most extensive stock of IRISH LINEN in Virginia.

Full lines of Linen and Muslin HANDKERCHIEFS, in plain hemstitch and fancy; do. embroidered and Lace trimmed, from 25 cents to $12,-50 each.

The most complete stock of Spring MANTLES ever offered in this market, is now opened, embracing some forty different styles, and all new. This cannot fail to be a most interesting feature of our business to the ladies.

The stock of LADIES' DRESS GOODS, embraces all the new fabrics to be found at the most reasonable rates.

The SILK stock is far larger than any in the State, and commands our especial attention—The encouragement the ladies have heretofore passed on this stock, as compared with anything they had seen, leaves us without anything to say, more than it is now larger and more complete than it has ever been. No lady wishing to buy Silks should do so, without first examining this stock.

The assortment of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES AND LINEN GOODS, for Spring wear, is entirely complete, embracing the largest Stock of its kind, and at the most moderate prices.

The largest and finest stock of GLOVES AND HOSIERY ever offered, is now being opened, embracing everything in the line, from the finest Alexander's Kid gloves, to the lowest grades.—Hosiery in endless variety, embracing every kind and for every age.

I have also added the most complete assortment of SMALL WARES, NOTIONS, TRIMMINGS, &c.

The WHOLESALE STOCK is complete in every respect, and is the largest I have ever offered, being bought exclusively for Cash.

Great inducements will be offered for the Cash. Samples will be sent by mail free of charge on application, with prices marked on each, thereby enabling those who cannot visit our city, to make their selections at home—at as low prices as if they were present.
